

CALLING YOU BACK TO ME

Something in the wind blows tonight
There's a sadness coming home in your eyes
Whispers shout and treetops sing
But I don't know where you've been despite

The wind is calling you back to me
Summer's over and I know you want to be free
If there's a chance you'd like to reconsider
Why don't you hear the wind
Calling you back to me

Something in the lines of your face
Does it scare you seeing how much we've changed
What I see is so much grace
And we don't know everything despite

The wind is calling you back to me
Winter's coming and we know we've got to be free
If there's a chance you'd like to reconsider
Why don't you hear the wind
Calling you back to me

BRIDGE

Take all the time that you need
You don't have to say a word
And I don't have to get down on my knees
I'm hoping for a miracle

But I don't know where you are tonight
The wind is calling you back to me
Summer's over and I know you want to be free
If there's a chance you'd like to reconsider
Why don't you hear the wind
Calling you back to me
