

VERSE 1 She walks the street at night
Chasing shadows, staying alive
Around every corner is another sign
Her world's collapsing, just a matter of time
There's a star in the east with her name

CHORUS 1

Coyote cries in the night, when the full moon shines
Down from the mountain she climbs
To the city where everyone wants her to go away
Back to where she came from — — — Coyote cries

VERSE 2 She dares to roam by day
Hungry puppies leaving the cave
Beware of the humans, they will fight her hard
Temperature rising, never let down your guard
She is thirsty, so worn out and tired

CHORUS 2

Coyote cries in the night, when the dog star shines
Down from the heavenly skies
To the city where everyone wants her to go away
Back to where she came from — — — Coyote cries

BRIDGE She lays her head down in the grass
Sleeping with one eye always open
And she's dreaming, and scattering stars
All around the universe, that's why the

CHORUS 3

Coyote cries in the night, when the full moon shines
Down from the heavens she climbs
To the city where everyone wants her to go away
Back to where she came from — — — Coyote cries
_____ at the full moon ____ till the light of the new dawn
In the sagebrush she lays down and dies and drifts away
Back to where she came from
Coyotes cries