

Go Easy On Love

Way up on that mountain
Yea, though you walk through your shadows of doubt
You know you just gotta keep provin' it to yourself
But you run and hide
You overanalyze
Go easy on Love

Wake up to the moment
Taste all the sweetness that life has to give
Eat the forbidden fruit (Pres. Obama to speak: "yes you can")
Go ahead
But don't run and hide
Don't you oversimplify
Go easy on Love

BRIDGE

You wanna know what only you think you want to
You gotta go wherever your soul can take you
Let's face it, you're gonna lose control
And that's a good thing
Cause darlin'
You gotta go easy on Love

(Why don't you) Come down off that mountain
(And) Run to the love and respect for yourself
Maybe then you can be ready for someone else
Don't you run and hide
Don't over-compromise
Your planet cries
She needs you by and by
Go easy on love
Go easy on love
Go easy on love
