

Love Has Taken Over

Written by Dale LaDuke and Tysa Goodrich

So many dreams to be etched into memory
So many times we could slip into reverie
Will we stay afloat till we're way out to sea?... Drifting far too long
Unforeseeable turning tides... taking us on this crazy ride
All you can do is hold on tight

CHORUS I can't help myself anymore
Love has taken over
Love has taken over
I'm not the one who was before
Love has taken over
Love has taken over

Wind in the trees and a hawk flying low to ground
Here in my dreams you appear with the sweetest sound
When I start to wake my whole life turns around... In the gentle void
Unforgettable starry sky... carries me out into the night
All I can do is hold on tight

CHORUS

BRIDGE All of my thoughts and my senses
All of my castle's defenses can no longer hold the gates

Irresistible forces rise... taking me on this crazy ride
All I can do is hold on tight

CHORUS I can't help myself anymore
Love has taken over
Love has taken over
I'm not the one who was before
Love has taken over
Love has taken over
I can't help myself anymore
Love has taken over
Love has taken over . . . me
